

Portents

Art giving Voice to Community

Sat 18th – Sun 26th September

Portents brings communities of Bristol together in a great tent city on College Green. 50 tents – each printed with a design by a different group – fill one of the city's iconic spaces with images, stories, and dreams. A unique art installation at the heart of Bristol!

- Fri 17th 12noon: Rigging Event – everyone creates Portents!
Sat 18th 1.15pm: Launch Event – music – poetry – Speakers' Corner!
Mon–Fri 11am-1pm: writing workshop in Bedminster Library.
Tues 21st: World Peace Day: 8.45–9.15am the City sings!
2.30pm procession from Pierian Centre to College Green –
5.15pm Evensong in Cathedral – 7.30pm candle-lit Vigil.
Weds & Sats mornings: storytelling for young children.
Fri 24th 12-2pm: lunch with Stephen Williams MP to talk about community cohesion.
All week: writers and artists in residence – including tent painting!

Portents comes from John Easterby and the Pierian Centre – the team that hung the 4-metre high iWITNESS banners at Temple Meads.

For details: 0117 924 4512 or info@pieriancentre.com.

